

Rule 2091-1 [Amended]

ATTORNEYS – WITHDRAWALS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

(a) Withdrawal Generally. Except as otherwise provided in this Local Rule or by order of the Court, no appearance by an attorney may be withdrawn in any case or proceeding except by leave of court, after fourteen days' notice served on the client and parties in interest affected thereby, and to opposing counsel.

(b) Withdrawal for Party in Interest Other Than the Debtor. An attorney for a party in interest other than the debtor who is not a party to any pending contested matter or adversary proceeding may withdraw his or her appearance without court order by filing a notice of withdrawal as attorney, stating the name and mailing address of the client, and serving copies of the notice on the client, the debtor, the trustee, the United States Trustee, and their attorneys.

(c) Withdrawal of Co-Counsel. An attorney seeking to withdraw from representing a client in a case or proceeding at a time when such client is represented by other counsel of record in such matter may withdraw his or her appearance by filing a notice of withdrawal that is approved and signed by the client and other counsel of record for the client, and serving copies of the notice on parties in interest entitled to notice.

(d) Substitution of Counsel. Counsel seeking to withdraw from representation of a client may file a joint motion with counsel seeking to be substituted in as counsel for such client, in the relevant case or proceedings, requesting authority of the Court for substitution of counsel. Such motion shall certify that the client has consented to the substitution or be signed by the client, and such motion shall be served on the client and parties in interest entitled to notice. The Court may grant a joint motion for substitution of counsel without a hearing. The provisions of this rule shall be subject to the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and this Court's Local Rules with regard to retention of professionals, disclosure, payment of professionals, and related matters.

Notes of Advisory Committee

2013 Amendment

This amendment establishes procedures for the withdrawal of an attorney for a party in interest other than the debtor who is not a party to any pending contested matter or proceeding, the withdrawal of an attorney when the party is represented by another attorney, and the substitution of one attorney for another.

1997 Amendment

This amendment conforms the existing Local Rules to the uniform numbering system prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States and to the model system suggested and approved by the Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules of the Judicial Conference's Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure. In renumbering the Local Rules to conform to the uniform numbering system, no change in substance is intended. This amendment was effective on April 15, 1997.

This rule was formerly Local Rule 1.08(a). The Advisory Committee Notes to the superseded rules may be helpful in interpreting and applying the current rules.

1995 Amendment

The amendments to Local Rule 1.08 are stylistic. No substantive change is intended.

These amendments were effective on February 15, 1995.
